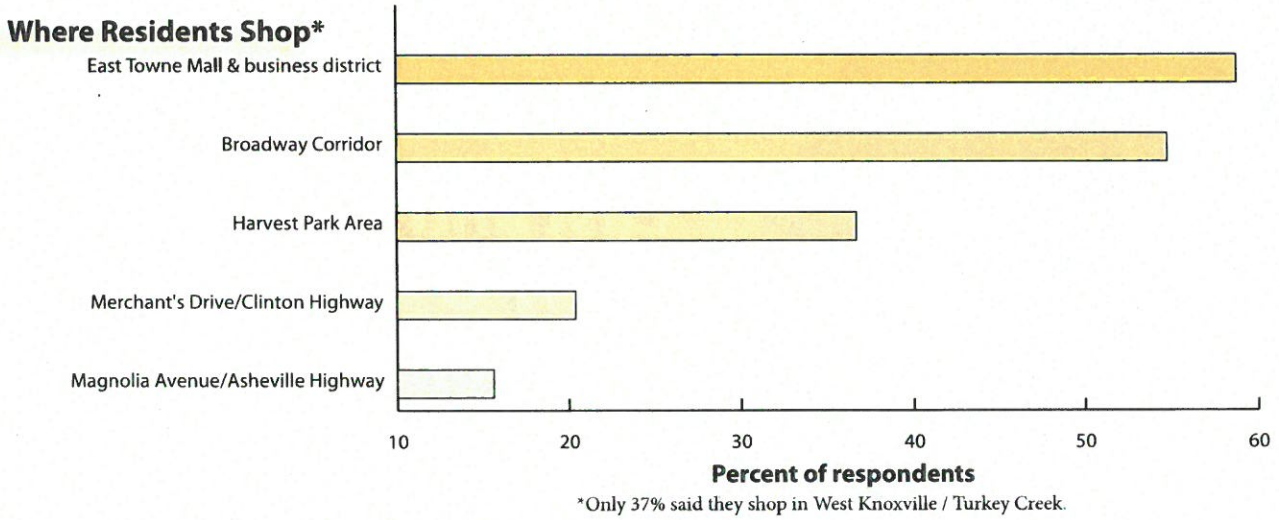
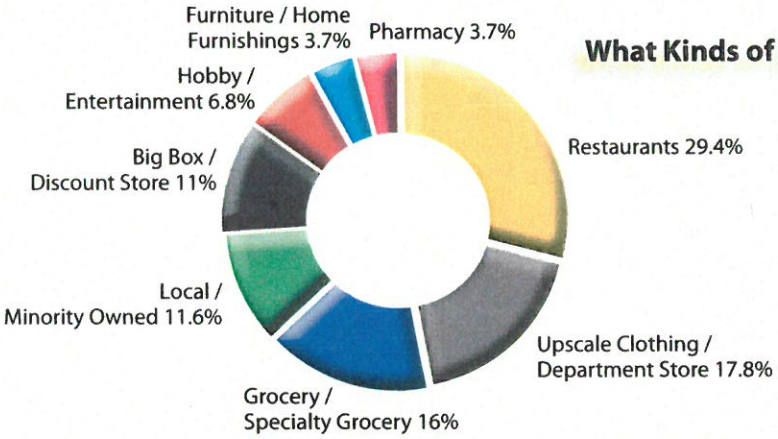
"Unfortunately, we find we have to go to West Knoxville for some things. As an East Knoxvillian, I would rather shop closer to home."

More than 300 Knoxvillians who live or work in East and Northeast Knoxville responded to a survey designed to address residents' needs and to spotlight business opportunities in the area.



*Only 37% said they shop in West Knoxville / Turkey Creek.



What residents want…

- Restaurants: non-chain, trendy, specialty
- Local: bakery, brewery, coffee shop, wine bar, book store
- Clothing: higher-end especially women's and children's
- Specialty store: electronics, books, sporting goods
- Medical services: primary care, women's care, dentists, elder care, pharmacies, walk-in clinic
- Other professional services: attorneys, accountants, dry cleaners

72% believe the area does not have enough retail stores.

[We want] "More green, less neon. Cafés with outdoor venues, sidewalks fixed, trees planted, more business participation in sponsoring community events."

Why businesses should come…

- Easy interstate access
- Close to downtown
- Loyalty to local business
- Diverse demographics
- Geographic center of Knox County
- Growing and underserved population
- Lower property costs for development and redevelopment
