Saturday, December 19, 2015

10:30 a.m.

Large Assembly Room in the City County Building

As I embark on a second term as Mayor, I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to continue to serve the people of Knoxville.

We have had an eventful four years, marked by mounting energy, enthusiasm and investment across our City. I know that we can take that momentum and carry it forward for the next four years, fueled by your trust and confidence.

The life and leadership of a City is a shared enterprise, shaped by the needs, dreams and passions of its citizens. I look forward to continuing our efforts to build a community that welcomes all and works for all.

The past four years have shown what we can do when we work together. I am excited to discover what the future holds.
