Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. Deadline for news & calendar items: 9 a.m. Friday

1. City Neighborhood Groups Can Apply for Grants

The City of Knoxville is reopening the Neighborhood Small Grants Program (NSGP) to provide funding for neighborhood-based initiatives in the city.

Approximately $30,000 has been made available for projects developed by resident-led, resident-controlled neighborhood associations, tenant associations, homeowners associations, and neighborhood watch groups that serve neighborhoods inside city limits. Start-up neighborhood groups may also apply.

As announced in the January 9 issue of this newsletter, groups wishing to apply must send a representative to either one of two mandatory pre-application workshops scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 28, and 5:30 p.m. Thursday, February 5, at the Cansler Family YMCA, 616 Jessamine Street.

Applications are due March 23, and awards will be announced in mid-May for projects starting in July.

Neighborhood groups can apply for grants ranging from $250 to $2,500. To increase the impact of the city's funding, grants must be matched with donations of goods and services, volunteer labor and/or other financial support for the project. A number of other conditions apply and are explained in the following program documents:

NSGP Guidelines

www.cityofknoxville.org/development/neighborhoods/NSGP_Guidelines.pdf

NSGP Application

www.cityofknoxville.org/development/neighborhoods/NSGP_Application.pdf

Please review these documents prior to the workshop and before calling the Office of Neighborhoods (David Massey, 215-3232) with any questions or concerns. Many questions can be answered by reading the guidelines and looking over the application.

The NSGP was created in the 1990s by the East Tennessee Foundation and then was later funded by the City of Knoxville in collaboration with the Foundation. The two partners suspended the program after the 2011 grant cycle. Now the Office of Neighborhoods is reviving the program on its own but with the advice and counsel of the Foundation.

2. Last Call: Nominate the Good Neighbor of the Year

If you know someone who has been an especially active and caring neighbor, you have just a few more days to nominate him or her for the Diana Conn Good Neighbor of the Year Award.

The award is presented annually to a Knoxville resident who --- in a spirit of cooperation and with commitment to inclusive community --- has devoted time and talent in service to his or her neighbors and neighborhood.

Nominations will be accepted through Wednesday, Jan. 28, 2015. The nominee must be a resident of the City of Knoxville. Mayor Madeline Rogero will present the award at the Neighborhood Conference to be held Saturday, March 7, 2015, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

See <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/development/neighborhoods/neighboraward.asp> to learn more and to obtain a copy of the Good Neighbor Nomination Form. Call Debbie Sharp at 215-4382 to have a hard copy of the nomination form mailed to you.

3. Register Your Information Booth by February 2

The 2015 Neighborhood Conference is right around the corner, and 37 organizations have already registered to have an information booth at the event, which will be held on Saturday, March 7, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

Some 500 people participated in this biennial conference in 2013.

The booth registration deadline is only 10 days away, so be sure to register your organization before the February 2 deadline.

Visit <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/NeighborhoodConferenceExhibitorSurvey> to register. Questions or concerns may be directed to Griff Ashooh at 215-3456 or gashooh@cityofknoxville.org.

Exhibitors at the conference will include a mix of city and county governmental agencies, youth service organizations, and a wide variety of other nonprofits, as well as corporate sponsors.

The 37 organizations registered so far are 311 Call Center, American Red Cross, the Birdhouse Neighborhood Center, CAC Office on Aging, Centro Hispano, City of Knoxville Parks & Recreation, City of Knoxville Solid Waste, Community Mediation Center, Community Television of Knoxville (CTV), the disABILITY Resource Center,

East Tennessee Housing Development Corporation, Free Will Baptist Family Ministries, Great Schools Partnership (GSP), Keep Knoxville Beautiful, Knox County CAC Transit, Knox

County District Attorney General's Office, Knox County Health Department, Knox County Solid Waste (includes Knox Recycles and EarthFest),

Knox County Stormwater Management , Knoxville - Knox County Community Action Committee (CAC), Knoxville Habitat for Humanity, Knoxville Police Department Safety Education Unit, Knoxville Regional TPO, Knoxville Scores with Energy Efficiency, Knoxville Utilities Board,

K-Town Youth Empowerment Network, League of Women Voters/ Support Our Schools, Metropolitan Drug Commission / Youth Action Council, Our Daily Bread of TN, Project Grad (GRAD Knoxville), Smart Trips, The South Knoxville Foundation, and Waste Connections of Tennessee.

4. Tee Shirts...Photos... #KnoxYouthSummit... Volunteering,,, And More

The Office of Neighborhoods and a host of volunteers are making preparations for the The Neighborhood Conference on Saturday, March 7, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

This city- and county-wide conference will provide free breakfast and lunch; door prizes; over 30 workshops on a wide variety of neighborhood topics; and opportunities to network with neighborhood leaders, elected officials and government officials. Also:

TEE SHIRTS: Neighborhoods will be competing for the best silk screened and homemade tee shirts among city and county neighborhoods. Prizes will be awarded. If your neighborhood needs advice on having tee shirts made, contact Debbie Sharp at 215-4382.

PHOTOS: A slide show of neighborhood photographs that will be shown throughout the day the conference. Send your digital photos to TNissen@cityofknoxville.org with "photo" in the subject line. Be sure to include the name of the neighborhood and the event title, along with a phone number. Or call Travis Nissen at 215-3077.

YOUTH: Ties that Bind Youth and Neighborhoods --- the portion of the conference devoted to youth and youth issues --- will feature several youth-themed workshops. Young people throughout Knoxville and Knox County are encouraged to use the social media hashtag #KnoxYouthSummit to discuss the issues, challenges and opportunities that they face in their daily lives. Discussion will continue at the conference.

ON LINE: Browse to <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1559462680962332> to join the "Knoxville Neighborhoods" group to see more information and get the latest on the upcoming conference. Please note that joining this Facebook group does not register you for the conference. Registration for individual attenders will begin next Friday, January 30.

VOLUNTEERS: There still a number of ways you can volunteer at the conference. You can volunteer for the whole day --- or for just an hour or two. If you wish to volunteer, visit https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/Knox_Volunteer and fill out the short application. Those without Internet access should call Debbie Sharp, assistant neighborhood coordinator, at 215-4382 or dsharp@cityofknoxville.org.

5. Thanks to Our Sponsors

The Neighborhood Conference would not be possible without the support of community-minded corporate sponsors. Home Federal Bank and Waste Connections of Tennessee are sponsoring the breakfast and luncheon.

Others sponsors are Cannon & Cannon Consulting Engineers, Coldwell Banker Wallace & Wallace, the Knoxville Area Association of Realtors, Prestige Cleaners, The Knoxville News Sentinel, Vaughn & Melton, and First Tennessee Bank.

Please express your appreciation to these sponsors if you get the chance. Those interested in learning more about a sponsorship can contact David Massey at 215-3232 or dmassey@cityofknoxville.org.

6. CAC Offers Free Lead-Based Paint Assessment and Related Work

There are ways to protect children in your home from lead-based paint hazards.

Did you know that many homes built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint? Young children under the age of 6 are especially susceptible to lead exposure. If lead paint chips are ingested, even with low levels of lead, it may affect a child's development and ability to achieve in school. The most important way to protect children from lead-based paint hazards is through prevention.

If you are concerned that lead-based paint hazards are present in your home, the Lead Safe & Healthy Homes Program --- operated by CAC Housing & Energy Services --- may be able to help. Check the date your home or apartment was built. If it was before 1978 and you have children under the age of 6 that live there or visit regularly, you could benefit from an assessment.

Contact Christina Moore, Intake Specialist, at christina.moore@cachousing.org or 865-244-3080. She will help you through the process to see if you qualify. Eligible applicants to the Lead Safe & Healthy Homes Program will receive a free lead-based paint assessment and related lead hazard control work.

For more, see the website www.cachousing.org/leadsafe.html.

7. Reminder: Community Development Sets Jan. 27 Public Meeting

The City of Knoxville's Community Development Dept. will conduct a public meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 27, at the John T. O'Connor Center, 611 Winona Avenue.

At the meeting, the department will:

- 1) Present information collected from its Citizen Participation and Consultation Process.
- 2) Present draft Priorities and Strategies to govern how federal funds will be allocated beginning in July 2015; and
- 3) Take comments from citizens.

Information presented at the meeting will be available online after Jan. 28 at www.cityofknoxville.org/development.

The citizen participation process is part of an overall effort to develop a five-year Consolidated Plan for program years 2015-2019. The plan will identify community needs and priorities, and outline how the City will spend anticipated federal funds through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) from these programs: Community Development Block Grants, HOME (affordable housing) and Emergency Solutions Grants (homeless services).

For more, see www.cityofknoxville.org/development.

8. Neighborhood and Government Calendar

Include your neighborhood-related event or meeting in this space. Call 215-3232.

Visit <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/calendar/> for a complete list of meetings of various city boards and commissions. See the Community Events Calendar: <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/events/events.pdf>

If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to attend a public meeting, please contact Stephanie Brewer Cook at 215-2034 or scook@cityofknoxville.org no less than 72 hours prior to the meeting you wish to attend.
