Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 5 p.m. Mondays.

1. Knoxville Finalist for Bell Helmet 100,000 Dollar Prize

Knoxville is one of just three national finalists for a $100,000 trailblazing grant from Bell Helmets.

Sponsored by the Appalachian Mountain Bike Club (AMBC), the project is titled the Urban Wilderness Gravity Trail. If Knoxville wins, AMBC will build a world-class bike trail in South Knoxville's Urban Wilderness.

To support the project, go to <http://www.bellhelmets.com/bellbuilt.html?urban-wilderness-gravity> and select the Urban Wilderness Gravity Trail. Voting ends June 4.

The Gravity Trail will complement the 40 plus miles of biking and hiking trails already constructed in the South Knoxville. The trail will include rock gardens, drops, and constructed features to create a challenging trail for experienced riders.

"This is a really exciting opportunity for us to put Knoxville in the big leagues with other biking destinations," said Matthew Kellogg, President of the Appalachian Mountain Bike Club (AMBC). "If we can build this trail, we add a progression to our trails that we don't currently have – with awesome opportunities for beginners to expert riders," he added.

Also in the running for the prize is COGGS from Duluth, Minnesota, and Merced Irrigation District from Merced, California.

For more information contact Matthew Kellogg @ 865-603-2940 or kellogg@ambc-sorba.org

2. Preorder Your Rain Barrel and Compost Bin Today!

Preorders are underway for the Water Quality Forum's annual rain barrel and compost bin sale, which allows residents to purchase the environmentally-friendly devices at a discounted rate.

Water Quality Forum allows residents to purchase the environmentally friendly devices at a discounted rate online now through June 14. The pickup date will be Saturday, June 20, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., at Walgreens, 7523 Kingston Pike.

Conserving water is one way to lower your utility bill. The water collected in a rain barrel can be used to water your plants, wash your car, or even a pet. This helps reduce water usage from the tap, thus saving you money.

Did you know that approximately 25% of garbage that homeowners throw out is compostable? Would you like to help conserve land from being used as landfills? Compost Bins are an excellent way to reduce the amount of garbage you take to the street each week.

To order or for more information: <http://www.rainbarrelprogram.org/Water-Quality-Forum> or you may contact Amy Mann at 865-215-5283.

3. SKNBC and Chapman Pool Offer Free Day to Members

Are you a member of the South Knoxville Neighborhood and Business Coalition (SKNBC)?

On June 14, Chapman Pool is offering a free day to swim, and enjoy free watermelon and popsicles for SKNBC members. SKNBC includes Colonial Village Neighborhood Association, Island Home Park Neighborhood Association, Lake Forest Neighborhood Association, Old Sevier Community Group, South Haven Neighborhood Association, and South Woodlawn Neighborhood Association. If you live in any of these neighborhoods come enjoy a free day in the sun and meet your neighbors!

There is also a concession stand to purchase hamburgers, hotdogs, and other snacks but you can bring your own picnic. The Chapman pool offers an Olympic size pool, low dive, high dive and kiddie pool. The event promises to be family fun for everyone.

Employees of businesses that are members of SKNBC are also invited to this free event. Please visit <http://southknoxvillealliance.org> to find a list of member businesses.

If you are unsure of your neighborhood's membership, please contact your local neighborhood association via the City of Knoxville Office of Neighborhoods at <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/development/neighborhoods> or send an email to contact@sknbc.org or call 309-4661.

4. Garage Sales, Permits and Signs

Did you know that a permit is needed for a garage sale?

Knoxville has a city ordinance to cover Personal Property Sales. But don't stress, the form is very short, the fee is $10.00, and it can cover multiple days.

Any sale on your property requires this permit. You can have your sale for up to three consecutive days OR for two consecutive weekends. This can all be included in one permit. You may receive a permit three times in a one-year period.

If a neighborhood wants to do a large multi-home garage sale, it only needs to fill out one form and pay the fee once. Each participating home isn't required to fill out a form or pay separately.

Signs are allowed. They can be put out no earlier than 2 days in advance, taken down each night and replaced in the morning. A homeowner can have two signs on the property of the sale, which will be no more than four square feet. There may be two directional signs that can be no more than two square feet on other property for which you have received written permission to do so.

According to the City's ordinance, garage sales shall begin no earlier than 9:00 a.m. and last no later than 6:00 p.m.

If you have questions or concerns, you may call the Business License and Tax office at 215-2083.

5. Harbours Gate Community Festival to Take Place at Montgomery Village

Montgomery Village will host the 4th Annual Inner City Got Voice Competition.

The Competition is run by Harbours Gate, a local 501(c)3 organization dedicated to building safer and stronger communities.

The event will feature a talent competition for the Inner City Housing Community residents. Voice, instrumental, dance, individual acts, bands and all genres of music are welcome. All lyrics must be clean and without profane or vulgar language.

Sterling 'Sterl the Pearl' Hinton, a nationally known DJ and former UT Quarterback, as well as Laurel Wright, an American Idol Finalist and Nashville Recording Artist, will host the talent competition.

The event will take place at the Montgomery Village Athletic Fields, 4600 Joe Lewis Rd. Knoxville, TN. It will take place from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Performances will begin at 6:00 p.m.

To preregister, contact Tom Garner at 679-8610 or register from 5:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. the day of the event.

6. City of Knoxville Launches New Website, Office of Neighborhood Gets Blog

The City of Knoxville is proud to announce the launch of its new website at www.knoxvilletn.gov.

This is the first update to the City's website since 2004. The website features a clean, photo-centric homepage with easy navigation and increased user functionality including integrated calendars, blogs and photo galleries. Also the webpage is designed to work on mobile devices as well as desktops.

As part of the update, the Office of Neighborhoods has a new blog. Timely news and information relevant to neighborhood groups will be available there. Also, the Office of Neighborhoods is calling for Neighborhood photos that can be uploaded to the website to showcase neighborhood activities and events. Send your digital photos to TNissen@cityofknoxville.org with "photo" in the subject line by June 26. Be sure to include the name of the neighborhood and the event title, along with a phone number. Or call Travis Nissen at 215-3077.

The old website will remain active at cityofknoxville.org for a limited time, to ease the transition, but a banner will direct visitors to the new website. After a short time, the old address will simply redirect to the new site.

Any comments or questions about the new website can be emailed to citywebmaster@knoxvilletn.gov.

7. KEMA Offers Community Emergency Response Team Training

The Knoxville-Knox County Emergency Management Agency (KEMA) --- in cooperation with other local emergency response agencies --- is offering Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training.

Neighborhood representatives are urged to sign up.

"During major emergencies and disasters, emergency response agencies can be overloaded, and professional responders may not be immediately available," says KEMA Operations Officer Colin Ickes. "The CERT program gives people the information and skills they need to be prepared and to be able to help themselves, their households and their neighbors during a disaster."

When individuals complete CERT training, they are expected to focus on their neighborhoods and their immediate area. "When [CERT members] see a need in their neighborhood, and they can put their CERT skills into practice, then they should do so," Ickes explained.

The CERT class will meet a total of eight times. Seven sessions will be held at 6 p.m. Thursdays, starting July 16 and ending August 27. The last class, a Disaster Simulation, will take place on Saturday, August 29.

Each class session will last approximately 2.5 to 3 hours. There is no cost for the course, and all materials will be provided.

To register, contact Colin Ickes at cickes@cityofknoxville.org or 865-215-1166.

In addition to CERT, the Office of Neighborhoods offers a guide and training to develop a neighborhood-level disaster preparedness plan. For more on this, contact Griff Ashooh at 215-3456 or gashooh@cityofknoxville.org.

Other details can be found here: <http://bit.ly/1Gj7s12>
