1. Like the Office of Neighborhoods on Facebook!

The Office of Neighborhoods is proud to announce the creation of an Office of Neighborhoods Facebook page.

Through this page, the City hopes to link and connect all of the Facebook pages of neighborhood and community groups working to improve Knoxville's neighborhoods --- as well as the many individuals who are engaged in community building.

Our page will keep you updated on neighborhood happenings and meetings, city events, and things going on in the community. Be sure to visit our page and like us to keep yourself up to date!

2. Over 50 Door Prizes Donated for March 5 Neighborhood Luncheon

Twenty more door prizes have been donated for drawings at the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon that will be held Saturday, March 5, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

To date, 40 local businesses and organizations have donated a total of 53 prizes for the event, which will bring together neighborhood leaders and others interested in Knoxville's residential neighborhoods.

The new donors are Aubrey's Restaurant, Bliss, Dragonfly Ariel Arts Studio, The Glowing Body Yoga Studio, Historic Homes of Knoxville, Hops and Hollers Craft Beer Store and Tap Room, Ijams Nature Center, Knoxville Ice Bears, Knoxville Symphony Orchestra, Litton's Market and Restaurant, Magpies, Old City Java, Rare Breyd Kreations, Scrappin' in the City, and Three Rivers Market.

The new donations include dinner for two; gift certificates; gift baskets; tickets to entertainment, tours and sports events; beauty products; a beer growler with free fill; group lessons; cupcakes for three months; and a family membership. For the full list of donors and door prizes, see the website.

3. Register Now for the Neighborhood Luncheon

Just three weeks are left to register for the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon on Saturday, March 5, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

This is a free event. Please register on this website no later than Feb. 29. Registration takes less than five minutes. At the end, be sure to click DONE to submit your information. Those needing a hard copy registration form can call the Office of Neighborhoods at 215-2113, and a form will be mailed to you.

This is an event in four parts. First, starting at 10 a.m., neighborhood leaders and other city residents can meet one another, talk with Mayor Madeline Rogero and members of City Council, interact with city department heads, and obtain information from a broad array of city services.

Second, from 11 a.m. until noon, the "Bringing It All Back Home" Community Showcase will feature six to eight slide show presentations of neighborhood, community and city-wide projects that address issues, concerns and opportunities in Knoxville.

Third, a free entrée salad will be served starting at noon. The program will include a keynote speech by Pastor Daryl Arnold of Overcoming Believers Church, followed by the presentation of the Neighborhood Achievement and Good Neighbor of the Year Awards.

Fourth, following the luncheon, there will be drawings for over 50 door prizes (see article above). Throughout the day, the Old City Buskers will provide the entertainment. More detail can be found on the Luncheon web page and this Facebook event page.

There is no charge for this event, including lunch, but you must register in advance so that a lunch ticket can be reserved in your name. Registration at the door will be possible, but you may or may not get a lunch ticket.

4. Call for Neighborhood Photographs

The Office of Neighborhoods is seeking digital photographs of neighborhood potlucks, meetings, cleanup projects, fairs, neighbors helping neighbors, street scenes, neighborhood signs, and more.

The photos will be incorporated into a slideshow that will be shown at the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon on Saturday, March 5.

Please submit photos directly by email or via Internet file services such as Dropbox to Rebecca McIver at rnciver@knoxvilletn.gov. If you sent photos for our 2013, 2014, and 2015 events, you do not need to resend. But please send new photos!

5. Alice Bell to Hold Candidate Forum

Alice Bell Spring Hill Neighborhood Association will use its February meeting to conduct a meet-and-greet with candidates for District 1 and District 2 seats on Knox County Commission and the District 2 seat on the Knox County Board of Education.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. Monday, Feb. 15, at Alice Bell Baptist Church, 3305 Alice Bell Road. ABSHNA's regular meeting place, New Harvest Park Community Center, is being used for early voting.

The 2016 Presidential Primary Election and the Knox County Primary Election will be held Tuesday, March 1, with early voting taking place between February 10 and February 23.

The District 2 candidates for the Knox County Board of Education are Jennifer Owen and Grant Standefer. County Commission District 1 candidates are Michael Covington (R), Evelyn Gill (D), and Rick Staples (D). County Commission District 2 candidates are Michele Carringer (R), John N. Fugate II (R), Laura K. Kildare (D), and Cheri Siler (D). (Siler has since announced she will not campaign.)

6. Eastport / Lee Williams to Honor Police, Fire Fighters

The Eastport / Lee Williams Neighborhood Watch will hold its annual Police and Fire Fighter Appreciation Lunch at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 17, at the Lee Williams Recreation Center off Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

The meeting --- originally scheduled last month but cancelled due to snow --- will feature homemade chili and cider. All available emergency personnel are invited to attend.

For more, contact Sylvia Cook at sylviacook5901@comcast.net or 206-3433.

7. Westmoreland Heights Elects Leaders

Shawn Lyke has been elected president of the Westmoreland Heights Neighborhood Association, succeeding Jamie Keith, who was elected secretary.

Other leaders are Alexis Guindi, vice president; Nelson Pratt, treasurer; and additional board members Connor Coffey, Dick Goldstine, Ellen Kern, Katie Lane, Leslie Lischer, Michael Versen, Tommy Wilson, and Marcie Wright.

Westmoreland Heights, also known as Old Westmoreland, is the neighborhood famous for its historic water wheel at the corner of Sherwood Drive and Westland Drive, on a tributary of Fourth Creek.

8. Council to Consider Action on Blighted Properties

Knoxville City Council next week will consider the Community Development Department's request to purchase two properties and sell three others under the Chronic Problem Properties Program.

City Council meets at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 16, in the Large Assembly Room at the City County Building on Main Street.

Properties slated for purchase are 2538 Davenport Road in the Old Sevier neighborhood in South Knoxville and 5620 Sierra Road in the Tower Heights neighborhood of North Knoxville.

Community Development has buyers for and seeks City Council permission to sell 177 Chickamauga Avenue in Oakwood Lincoln Park, 327 Cansler Avenue and adjacent vacant lot in Mechanicsville, and 1510 Iroquois Avenue in the Morningside area of East Knoxville.

Under the Chronic Problem Properties Program, Community Development seeks to identify certain blighted properties and requests that they be determined and then later certified as blighted by the Better Building Board. This newsletter carries notices when these actions are pending.

If the owner misses several opportunities over a period of more than six months to take corrective action, the City may then proceed to acquire the properties if given approval by City Council. Properties acquired through negotiation or via eminent domain are then listed in the Community Development Department's Homemakers Program. Individuals or businesses can make proposals for acquiring and rehabilitating properties so that they can contribute to neighborhood stability and return to the tax rolls.

Details on the above five properties can be found in the Feb. 16 City Council agenda, which will be posted here on the city website by Friday of this week. To see the underlying documentation for each item, just click on the date of the meeting and then on the individual agenda item.

9. Neighborhood Advisory Council Meets Wednesday

The Neighborhood Advisory Council will meet at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 10. Agenda items include further discussion about the proposed ordinance governing food trucks, a presentation by faculty and students in the Project Grad program, and discussion of other volunteer opportunities in youth service programs.

10. League to Celebrate and Showcase Community Schools

A community school is a public school that creates partnerships and aligns community resources to improve student success, family health, neighborhood connectivity and safety.

If you have just heard about Community Schools but don't know much about them, the League of Women Voters is providing an opportunity to learn more.

The League --- an advocate for the initiative since it was launched in 2004 --- is inviting citizens to see for themselves how the Community Schools program is transforming communities and delivering results for more students.

Since schools are at the heart of many neighborhoods, this is a great opportunity for neighborhood leaders to learn more about the program and how your organization might plug in.

The celebration event will take place from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 25, at South Knoxville Elementary School, 801 Sevier Avenue. Click here to reserve your spot at this event and then click on the green Register button. Click here to request child care. Those without Internet access may call Jamey Dobbs at (865) 548-0818 to register and/or reserve child care.

The program begins at 5:30 p.m. with a reception and recognition of the “visionary leaders” who got the program started --- Dr. Bob Kronick of the University of Tennessee, Knox County Schools Superintendent Jim McIntyre, and Buzz Thomas, director of the Great Schools Partnership (GSP), which runs the Community Schools initiative.

Stephanie Welch, GSP’s Vice President of Community Schools, then will provide an overview of the program, followed by small group tours showcasing partnership benefits, neighborhood projects, the link to Waterfront development, an innovative community library, and the South Waterfront plan display from the City of Knoxville.

The evening will conclude with a walk through the “gallery” of community schools in Knoxville and a chance to meet the people involved, share observations and ask questions. See a list of community schools.

Community Schools stay open as late as 6:30 in the evening and offer extra instructional time, as well as recreation, arts, health, adult education and any other services a neighborhood might want. To work, it takes a steering committee of staff, teachers, community residents, and local businesses along with a full time Resource Coordinator who works closely with the Principal.
