1. Deane Hill Elects New Officers
2. Fourth & Gill Offers Workshop on Event Planning
3. Community Development Celebrates Housing, Other Programs
4. Better Building Board Meets Thursday
5. Testify on Blighted Properties at Meeting Friday
6. Neighborhood and Government Calendar

Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 9 a.m. Tuesdays.

1. Deane Hill Elects New Officers

Jinger Kelson is the new president of Deane Hill Neighborhood Community Association, succeeding Barry Cole. Tracy Ford was elected treasurer, succeeding Jenny Rogers, and Bob Pfohl was elected vice president.

2. Fourth & Gill Offers Workshop on Event Planning

Members of the Historic Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization will explain the nuts and bolts of event planning at a workshop to be held from 10 a.m. until noon on Saturday, April 9, at the Central United Methodist Church, located at 201 Third Avenue just one block off North Central and Broadway.

A continental breakfast will be served, so Fourth & Gill requests that you RSVP no later than noon Thursday, April 7, to Laurie Meschke, preferably at LLMeschke@gmail.com or, if you don't have Internet access, to 865-964-8368.

If your neighborhood organization is planning an event, no matter how large or small, you will likely pick up some useful tips at this workshop.

Topics will include:

-  City relations -- permits, services, and trainings.
-  Logistics – timelines, facilitating process, insurance, etc.
-  Sponsorships – purpose, marketing, levels of sponsorship, commitment/payment, in-kind vs. cash.
-  Art and entertainment – recruitment, marketing, event footprint.
-  Marketing – media outlets, planning, materials, know the audience.
-  Volunteers – planning, recruitment, task assignment, appreciation.

These topics will be presented by the planning committee for Fourth & Gill's 2015 ARToberfest --- Gerry Moll, Laurie Meschke, Liz Upchurch, Robert Rogers and Steve Larimer.

The workshop fulfills a commitment made by Fourth & Gill when it landed a Neighborhood Small Grant for ARToberfest last year.

3. Community Development Celebrates Housing, Other Programs

The City of Knoxville this week is celebrating National Community Development Week with a series of events showcasing projects of the City's Department of Community Development and its nonprofit partners across Knoxville.

The theme this year is "CDBG: 42 Years of Building Strong Communities, HOME: 25 Years of Providing Decent, Safe and Affordable Housing."

In 1974, the Community Development Block Grant program was created by Congress under President Gerald Ford through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The HOME program was created in 1991 to support the development of decent, safe and affordable housing.

"As our city grows and the economy strengthens, there is an increase in the demand for housing," said Becky Wade, the director of Community Development. "In Community Development, we focus resources to strengthen neighborhoods and to improve access to decent and affordable housing for lower-income families." The week's activities highlight the continuing need for housing assistance and other services, she added.

Community Development administers a variety of programs geared toward the revitalization of Knoxville's low- to moderate-income neighborhoods. For more, see www.knoxvilletn.gov/development.

Activities this week include:

 Today (11-1) --- An Open House at 1518 Louisiana Ave. The new home, which is for sale, was constructed by East Tennessee Housing Development Corporation, a nonprofit housing partner. The three-bedroom, two-bath home is accessible and Energy Star compliant. Down payment and closing cost assistance is for qualified buyers.

 Wednesday, March 30 (10 a.m.) --- "Raise the Roof" at Catholic Charities' Samaritan Place, 3009 Lake Brook Blvd. The event will celebrate the installation/completion of the roof at Samaritan Place (cost of $70,000 in Community Development Block Grant funds) and recognize the case management activities (current Homeless Grant contract of $10,000).

 Friday, April 1 (8 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.) --- "Knoxville Area Fair Housing Conference" at The Foundry, 747 World's Fair Park Drive. The Conference --- sponsored by the Equality Coalition for Housing Opportunities in association with the City of Knoxville and Tennessee Human Rights Commission --- includes an awards luncheon recognizing individuals and organizations for their contributions in promoting fair housing and equal opportunity.

The conference is open to housing practitioners, human/social service agencies, governmental entities, advocacy groups, neighborhood leaders and the general public. For program and registration details, see <http://echoknoxville.com> and the calendar item below. The conference will end with a walking tour and a visit to Salvation Army, Volunteer Ministry Center and Knox Area Rescue Mission.

Meanwhile, Community Development is in the process of drafting its 2016-2017 Annual Action Plan for the proposed use of federal funds for the second year of the Five Year Consolidated Plan that begins July 1, 2016.

See www.knoxvilletn.gov/development to review and/or download a copy of the draft plan. (See below for other ways to see the plan.)

A public hearing on the plan will be held at 5:30 p.m. Monday, April 11, at the John T. O'Connor Center, 611 Winona Street, where citizens can offer comments on the plan.

4. Better Building Board Meets Thursday

Two properties are on the agenda for this week's Better Building Board (BBB) meeting at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, March 31, in the Small Assembly Room of the City County Building.

The property at 2016 Jefferson Avenue is on the agenda for appeal of a boarding order by the Public Officer, and 3115 Sunset Avenue is on the agenda for an auto appeal. Neighbors affected by these properties may wish to be present to testify on their impact on the neighborhood.

For a full copy of the March BBB agenda, with details and owner information on each property, visit http://knoxvilletn.gov/government/boards_commissions and click on the Better Building Board.

5. Testify on Blighted Properties at Meeting Friday

Seven properties are on the agenda for the City's next Public Officer Hearing, which will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday, April 1.

The Public Officer --- Public Works Director David Brace --- will hear testimony on buildings that inspectors contend are in violation of the city's building codes. Testimony can also be made by the property owners, neighbors, neighborhood groups, and other stakeholders, such as lien holders.

The Public Officer then decides whether to issue an order requiring that the violations be addressed within a certain period of time. Failure by the owner to cure the problem may result in the boarding or demolition of a structure, or the cleanup of a dirty or overgrown lot, with costs billed to the owner. A property owner may appeal the Public Officer's decision to the Better Building Board and, ultimately, to Chancery Court.

The properties to be heard for repair/demolition orders are: 120 Ault Street, 2412 Bernhurst Drive, 504 Lovell Road (commercial), 1846 Prospect Place, and 922 Vermont Avenue.

The properties at 4809 Millertown Pike (including accessory structures) and 1711 Washington Pike (accessory structure only) will be considered for confirmation of previously issued emergency repair/demolition orders.

If any of these properties are in your neighborhood, you or a representative of your organization may wish to attend the meeting to submit testimony about the impact of the property on the neighborhood.

The full April 1 agenda, with details on each property, can be found here on the city website.
