 Knoxville Parks and Recreation

You asked, we answered! We have had many class requests this year, so we will be trying out some brand new options for this fall. We are pleased to introduce new, ongoing classes for children and adults where you can try out new techniques, bring friends together for a fun activity out, or just treat yourself with a creative break. This fall, whatever the day, whatever the month, you are not far from an art class to enrich your week!

Here at the Craft Center, we are welcoming several new instructors, and we can't wait to introduce you.

Karen Brown will be sharing her expertise in wire working and wire wrapped jewelry, Shelley Mangold will guide you into the world of Citrasolv & mixed media artwork. John Allen will help you dive deeper into your art practice with instruction in direct observation and imaginative drawing, and Jacquie Wolff will show you ways to preserve your own or a loved one's face in her plaster art mask class!

We also have some very special events to share with you in the upcoming seasons. Exhibiting painter Lela Buis will be with us for an Artist's Reception on Friday, August 19, 5:30-8:00.

This December, we will also return to a favorite tradition from years past! We invite you to our Holiday Open House on Saturday, December 3, 4:00-8:00.

Come view the display of student artwork from Betty Fortenberry's acrylic painting class, see work by our talented teaching artists, shop for gifts, enter to win prizes, share refreshments and more!

Hope to see you,

Elise

Registration #FA16102

Instructor: Sandy Larson

Children will experience the joy of dance through listening to both fun, playful and classical music. They will learn ballet terms while being guided and encouraged by preschool dance specialist, Sandy Larson. Sandy has over thirty years of teaching experience. Class recitals are always a popular way to end each session, and various performance opportunities are available throughout the year.

Ages 3-6, Hands-on Intro to Woodworking

Monday, August 15

11:00 a.m.—12:00 noon, $14.00

Instructor: Jennie Harriman

Registration #SU16003

Join us for a safe and fun, hands-on introduction to woodworking! This is an opportunity to experience what our full woodworking sessions are like and complete a small wooden toy to take home. Woodworking provides opportunities for children to learn skills related to math (measuring, geometry), science (physics, botany), and art (drawing, painting, sculpting), as well as creative problem solving. Jennie teaches skills like cutting & joining by showing children how to use hand tools safely and effectively.

Instructor: KAFCC Staff

Registration #FA16103

Join us in this fun, autumn class to create a festive pumpkin that will last! Students will be introduced to the slab roller and then use brown speckled stoneware to make a pumpkin shaped plate. We will sculpt leaves and vines, and finish by painting with underglazes to add vibrant color to our creations! All pieces will be dipped in food-safe, clear glaze, then fired and ready for pick-up in 7-10 days following the class.

Ages 3-5 w/Parent, Snowmen at Night

Friday, December 2

10:00—11:15 a.m., $15.00

Instructor: Lori Sloan Laubach

Registration #FA16104

In this fun, frosty workshop we will explore author Caralyn Buehner's delightful storybook Snowmen at Night and create a wintery work of art to go along with it! We will read from the beautiful book and talk about our favorite winter things. Then we will use colored paper, oil pastels and mixed media objects to create and add personality to a snowman, snowy hills, winter-time trees and the glowing moon!

YOUTH CLASSES

Under Painting Like the Dutch Masters

Tuesdays, August 23-October 10

Tuesdays, October 17-December 6

(No Class on November 21)

5:30—8:00 p.m., $140.00

Instructor: Diann Lewis Bishop

Registration #FA16309

This workshop will introduce you to underpainting and glaze with many mediums and will incorporate color theory. The Dutch masters perfected the underpainting technique by layering their painting in neutrals then applying glazes of pure color (like stacking colored pieces of glass over a light.) You will learn layering, glazing and creating mood with color and light. Classes will include handouts and lecture materials and material list.

Adult Watercolor

Tuesdays, September 13-October 18

10:00 a.m.—12:00 noon, $100.00

Instructor: Susie Holt

Registration #FA16310

An adult approach to basic glazing with color, modeling form with color, and creatively learning basic design composition will be covered. Primary colors will be used to learn principles of mixing colors. A painting should be completed by the end of this six-week session. Students should purchase their own brushes. Basic watercolors and 9" X 11" watercolor paper provided. If students desire a larger painting or better quality paints, feel free to bring your own.

Mixed Media

Wednesdays, September 14-October 5

1:00-4:00 p.m., $100.00

Instructor: Shelley Mangold

Registration #FA16315

Free your creative spirit and personal style! We will be working with different art techniques in each of the four classes, developing your chosen themes to complete two works of art. Classes will be both energized and relaxed, open to all levels. Week one: Mixed media choices and backgrounds. Week two: stamps, stencils and Gelli print-making. Week three: Composition, texture and found objects. Week four: exploring finishing techniques.

Observational Drawing

Wednesdays, September 14-October 5

5:30-7:30 p.m., $85.00

Instructor: John Allen

Registration #FA16311

Students of all levels are invited to expand their understanding of drawing in this informative, hands-on class. Students will focus on direct observation and learning to draw using correct proportions. Emphasis will be placed on skill building through recreating still life compositions, as well as figurative and landscape works. We will be working with several different types of materials, including charcoal, conte crayons, graphite and ink.

Drawing Lab

Wednesdays, October 12-November 2

5:30-7:30 p.m., $85.00

Instructor: John Allen

Registration #FA16312

One of the benefits of drawing is that it is often simpler, and thus more freeing than many other media. This unique class will focus on mixed-media and non-traditional creative approaches to drawing. With a focus on the individual student's interest, the course may include the use of collage or found objects, drawing from memory rather than observation as a focus, and the use of painting mixed with traditional drawing. Students are encouraged to consider sculptural approaches to drawing—the only limit is your creativity.

Wire Worked Jewelry (2 week)

Mondays, September 19 & 26

6:00-8:00 p.m., $65.00

Instructor: Karen Brown

Registration #FA16317

Using semi precious metals such as copper, students will learn metal working techniques to create beautiful hammered metal jewelry. By the end of this two part course students will know how to create textured wire pendants, earrings, bracelets and possible rings. They will leave with at least one pendent and earrings set. All levels welcome.

Wire Wrapping

Monday, October 10, 1:00-3:00 p.m., $55.00

Monday, October 24, 6:00-8:00 p.m., $55.00

Monday, November 7, 6:00-8:00 p.m., $55.00

Instructor: Karen Brown

Registration #FA16318

Using sterling silver wire, students will learn a technique for wrapping almost any shape stone or object to create a one of a kind pendent. An assortment of stones and embellishments will be available, but feel free to bring a special pieces or favorite stone of your own! At the end of the workshop, students will leave with at least one complete piece, ready to wear!

Up-Cycled Painted Furniture (2 week)

Friday, September 23, 5:30—7:30 p.m. &

Saturday, September 24, 9:00—11:00 a.m.

Instructor: Cathy Maples

Registration #FA16321

We love taking rejected, broken objects and furniture and turning them into beautiful, functional pieces to enjoy. Join Cathy in a two-day workshop where you will transform an orphan piece of furniture into an eye-catching accent piece for your home. The class includes everything you'll need except a small piece of wooden furniture. Students can transform a thrift store find or bring in a piece from home to turn into a unique and beautiful design using Annie Sloan Chalk Paint and Waxes. Techniques covered will include various painting techniques, distressing the piece, and using both clear and dark wax to give your furniture an antiqued and well loved finish.

Ornaments For Everyone

Saturday, December 10

1:00-2:00 p.m., $20.00

Instructor: Susan Arbutal

Registration #FA16320

Join us and delightful Christmas tree ornaments to give as gifts or compliment your own tree. Susan will demonstrate simple, yet dramatic techniques with alcohol inks and acrylic marbling inside the glass ornaments. Then students will duplicate the method using their own favorite colors. Ornaments will be finished by tying on a complimentary satin bow and hanger. This is a great way to spend a Saturday with a loved one

Stained Glass Angels

Saturday, December 10
