INDIVIDUALS

- Higher-risk individuals continue to stay at home as much as possible.
- All individuals, when in public, should physically distance 6 ft from others not a part of their household.
- All individuals should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent.
- Social settings and gatherings are limited to 10 people who physically distance from each other.
- Maximum of 6 people per table when dining in public.
- Minimize non-essential travel.

PHASE 1
(MINIMUM OF 28 DAYS)

PHASE 2
(MINIMUM OF 28 DAYS)

- Higher-risk individuals continue to stay at home as much as possible.
- All individuals, when in public, should physically distance 6 ft from others not a part of their household.
- All individuals should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent.
- Social settings and gatherings are limited to 10 people who physically distance from each other.
- Maximum of 6 people per table when dining in public.
- Minimize non-essential travel.

PHASE 3
(MINIMUM OF 28 DAYS)

- Higher-risk individuals can resume public interactions but should maintain 6 ft of physical distancing.
- All individuals, when in public, should physically distance 6 ft from others not a part of their household.
- When physical distancing can’t be consistent, all individuals should wear cloth face coverings (masks).
- Social settings and gatherings are limited to 100 people who still physically distance from each other.

INDIVIDUALS

- Business types continue to be added in this phase. Added capacity may be allowed.
- Encourage telework. Screen onsite employees daily.
- Slowly transition to increase services.
- Follow strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees/patrons should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some sectors, wearing face coverings is always required.
- Strongly consider special accommodations for higher-risk individuals you employ.

EMPLOYERS & OTHER ORGS.

- Pick a COVID-19 coordinator and visit https://covid.knoxcountytn.gov/.
- Post safety signs and join the email update list. (Available by May 1 on website)
- Encourage telework. If returning onsite, do it in phases & screen employees daily.
- Slowly transition to increase services.
- Use strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees and customers should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some places, wearing face coverings is required.
- Strongly consider special accommodations for higher-risk individuals you employ.

SECTOR SPECIFIC

- All services and alternative business models permitted under March 2020 “Safer at Home” are still permitted.
- Childcare facilities can operate following CDC guidance and strict sanitation protocols.
- Sit-down dining, retailers, places of worship, salons and personal care businesses & gyms can operate under strict guidelines and protocols.
- Drinking-only establishments are not open for onsite consumption.
- Theaters, sports leagues, libraries, play structures, pools & splashpads remain closed.

INDIVIDUALS

- Business types continue to be added in this phase. Added capacity may be allowed.
- Encourage telework. Screen onsite employees daily.
- Slowly transition to increase services.
- Follow strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees/patrons should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some sectors, wearing face coverings is always required.
- Strongly consider special accommodations for higher-risk individuals you employ.

EMPLOYERS & OTHER ORGS.

- This section will be amended following a collaborative community process. Take the first steps for becoming part of the process by picking a COVID-19 coordinator and reviewing Knox County and City of Knoxville’s “Community Strategy for Phased Reopening” at: https://covid.knoxcountytn.gov/.

SECTOR SPECIFIC

- This section will be amended following a collaborative community process. Take the first steps for becoming part of the process by picking a COVID-19 coordinator and reviewing Knox County and City of Knoxville’s “Community Strategy for Phased Reopening” at: https://covid.knoxcountytn.gov/.

INDIVIDUALS

- Business types continue to be added in this phase. Added capacity may be allowed.
- Can slowly transition to full onsite staffing of worksites.
- Follow strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees/patrons should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some sectors, wearing face coverings is always required.
- For higher-risk individuals, strongly consider special accommodations, including continued telework.

EMPLOYERS & OTHER ORGS.

- Business types continue to be added in this phase. Added capacity may be allowed.
- Can slowly transition to full onsite staffing of worksites.
- Follow strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees/patrons should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some sectors, wearing face coverings is always required.
- For higher-risk individuals, strongly consider special accommodations, including continued telework.

SECTOR SPECIFIC

- Business types continue to be added in this phase. Added capacity may be allowed.
- Can slowly transition to full onsite staffing of worksites.
- Follow strict physical distancing and sanitation protocols.
- Employees/patrons should wear cloth face coverings (masks) when physical distancing can’t be consistent. For some sectors, wearing face coverings is always required.
- For higher-risk individuals, strongly consider special accommodations, including continued telework.