Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. Deadline for news & calendar items: 9 a.m. Friday.

1. Old North Announces Ice Cream Social, Dates for Home Tour

Historic Old North Knoxville Inc. is holding its 19th Annual Ice Cream Social, and is inviting the city --- especially other neighborhoods, government officials and candidates for public office --- to join the fun.

The event will take place from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 18, at Old North Knoxville Park, 416 E. Oklahoma Avenue. There will be several Mayfield ice cream flavors to sample. In addition, the Knoxville Fire Department is providing a fire truck for children to explore, and the Kickstand Community Bike Shop will make minor bike repairs and adjustments, as well as fit children for free bicycle helmets.

Meanwhile, Old North is asking everyone to save the dates for its 26th Annual Victorian Holiday Home Tour --- Saturday evening, Dec. 6, and Sunday afternoon, Dec. 7.

Old North Knoxville, Inc. was formed to preserve, promote and protect the neighborhood and the historic district. The neighborhood includes the triangle bounded by Woodland, Central and Broadway, along with a smaller area bounded by East Glenwood, Sixth Avenue, Cecil Avenue, and Broadway.

2. National Night Out Set for Tuesday, October 7

National Night Out --- scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 7 --- is now just a month away, but there is still time to plan an event in your neighborhood.

During National Night Out, neighborhood groups host potluck suppers, picnics, and other events to celebrate the strength of community and to send a message to would-be thieves and con artists that neighbors watch out for one another.

This is a nationwide effort promoted by the National Association of Town Watch (www.natw.org), which suggests that the event be held either the first Tuesday of August or the first Tuesday of October. Due to the likelihood of thunderstorms in August, the Knoxville Police Department now observes the event in October each year.

You can register your event at KPD by notifying Brenda Hicks at 215-1510 or bhicks@cityofknoxville.org. This will ensure that KPD schedules officers to attend your event. Be sure to give the name of your organization, the type of event, the time your event will begin and end, and the exact location.

3. Neighborhood Advisory Council to Ponder Proposed Sign Ordinance

The Neighborhood Advisory Council next week will hear presentations on proposed revisions to the Knoxville sign ordinance.

The NAC will meet from 4:30 p.m. until 6 p.m. next Wednesday, September 10, at the CAC building, 2247 Western Avenue.

The revisions combined the work of a task force led by City Council Member Duane Grieve and input from the staff of the Metropolitan Planning Commission. The revisions are up for consideration at this month's meeting of the MPC. That meeting is set for 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 11.

Here is a copy of the full agenda:

<http://agenda.knoxmpc.org/agenda.pdf>

Here is a copy of the proposed revisions, along with a memorandum highlighting the more controversial provisions:

<http://agenda.knoxmpc.org/2014/sep2014/10-B-13-OA.pdf>

Presentations about the sign ordinance will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

4. Dow Seeks Application for $15,000 Dow Promise Grant

Dow Chemical is now accepting applications for its Dow Promise grant, a program the company created more than 10 years ago to help area non-profit organizations implement projects specifically targeted at positively impacting the educational and economic challenges faced by African-American youth and adults in communities where Dow employees live and work.

Applications will be accepted through Wednesday, October 1, 2014 (closing at 11:59 p.m. EST). The maximum that can be requested or awarded to an organization is $15,000.

Visit www.dow.com/dowpromise for additional information and to submit an application, or contact Gail Benner at 865-521-8441 or GBenner@Dow.com.

5. South Knoxville Foundation Offers Fiscal Sponsorship

The South Knoxville Foundation has established a fiscal sponsorship program to partner with neighborhood and community-based organizations.

The Foundation, which is tax exempt, exists to bring together neighborhood organizations, businesses, developers, governments, and others to facilitate the planning and implementation of community development initiatives in South Knoxville.

Under the Foundation's new program, fiscal sponsorship provides a legal framework to projects consisting of inclusion in the corporate, legal structure of The South Knoxville Foundation; federal and state tax exemption for tax purposes; state registration for fundraising; and the ability to receive tax-deductible contributions from donors.

Here are the requirements for assistance from the Foundation:

- Projects must be located in South Knoxville.
- Funds must be used for specific projects to facilitate the planning and implementation of community development initiatives in South Knoxville.
- The Project must have a budget and timeline.
- Projects cannot subsidize partisan organizations or programs that advance a particular religious belief.

For additional information and an application, email Jacqueline Arthur, South Knoxville Foundation Board of Directors, at avalontrail@gmail.com.

6. Alliance Plans Saturday South at Ijams Nature Center

South Knoxville Alliance --- a business and professional association --- will host a "Saturday South" festival at Ijams Nature Center, 2915 Island Home Avenue, from noon until 6 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 13.

The event will include a hike through the Urban Wilderness, K-Town races, food, drinks, and live music. For more detail, visit www.ktownsouth.org and www.saturdaysouth.com.

The South Knoxville Neighborhood and Business Coalition (SKNBC) will operate an information booth at the festival to promote the neighborhoods and neighborhood groups in South Knoxville. This will include a map of the neighborhood associations, portions of SKNBC's welcome packets that are presented to new homeowners, a list of the houses that are for sale south of the river, and an opportunity for anyone to write down why he or she likes South Knoxville.

The afternoon festival at Ijams will be followed at 7 p.m. by the Vestal Old-Time Square Dance at Candoro Marble, 681 Maryville Pike.

7. Design Spaces for Seniors, People with Disabilities

The third annual East Tennessee Accessibility Symposium will showcase how to create accessible spaces for seniors and people with disabilities.

Sponsored by the City of Knoxville's Office on Disabilities, the interactive show will be held from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Friday, October 3, at the Knoxville Civic Coliseum, 500 Howard Baker Jr. Avenue.

Learn how to design for accessibility, how beneficial it is, and how easy and affordable it can be to provide when built into the design of a house, commercial building or other structure. Experts in the design industry and people who benefit from accessibility will be on the program; they will address topics such as what people with disabilities need and look for, along with the building owner's responsibility for providing it.

Lunch costs $5.00, and workshops with a continuing education credit cost $25. Visit <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/accessibilitysymposium/> to register or get detailed information about speakers and vendor display booths. Or call Stephanie Cook at 215-2034.

8. City Seeks Comments on Report of Expenditure of Federal Funds

A draft of the City of Knoxville's Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER) will be available for citizen review and comment for a period of 15 days beginning this coming Monday, Sept. 8.

All comments must be received no later than September 22, 2014.

The report describes how the City of Knoxville utilized Community Development Block Grant, HOME Investment Partnerships Act, and Emergency Shelter Grant funding received from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development during the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2014.

Starting Monday, there are several ways to review the report:

 Browse to www.cityofknoxville.org/development for a link to the draft report.

The award ceremony will be held at the Knox Heritage Annual Meeting in the Bijou Theatre on Thursday evening, November 20.
