Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 9 a.m. Tuesdays.

1. Fourth & Gill to Host Community Meeting on Pain Clinic

The Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Association will hold a North Knoxville community meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 7, at Central United Methodist Church, 201 E. Third Avenue, to discuss a new pain clinic planned for the former UNITE labor union building at 1124 N. Broadway.

“The clinic will provide treatment for spine and neck pain and will provide medically assisted treatment for opioid addiction,” according to a notice issued by the neighborhood organization. “The clinic will be run by Dr. (Michael) Chavin, who currently operates a similar clinic in Morristown. Dr. Chavin recently moved to Knoxville and will close his Morristown clinic to work exclusively at his new Knoxville clinic.

“To provide the North Knoxville community with a better understanding of his clinic and his services, Dr. Chavin recently reached out to Fourth & Gill President Liz Upchurch asking to schedule a community meeting.

“The meeting will provide an opportunity to hear Dr. Chavin describe his practice and the patients he serves, and we will have a Q&A session following his presentation,” the notice concludes.

For more information, contact Jenny Wright at jmatthewswright@gmail.com or Liz Upchurch at lizupchurch1@gmail.com.

2. What is the State of Your Neighborhood? The City Wants to Know

Getting input from city residents about the current state of affairs in their neighborhoods is one of the goals of a public meeting to be held at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 12, at O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona St.

The purpose of the meeting is to gather information and public input as the city's Community Development Department develops its Annual Action Plan Update for the proposed use of federal funds for the program year 2016-2017.

Each year, the department utilizes Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), HOME Investment Partnership Act, and Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) funds. All three funds are administered by the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

At this meeting, Community Development staff will review priorities and strategies from the 2015-2019 Five Year Consolidated Plan and constraints that impact how HUD funds are allocated; get specific feedback from neighborhood, business, and non-profit housing and homeless services partners on opportunities/challenges; and take comments from other citizens.

Citizens may also send comments/questions by email to lrust@knoxvilletn.gov; by mail to Linda Rust, City of Knoxville Community Development Dept., P.O. Box 1631, Knoxville, TN 37901; and by fax to 865-215-2962. Or call 865-215-2120 for additional information.

In the event of inclement weather on Jan. 12, the alternate date is Jan. 14, same time, same place.

3. Deadline Extended for Neighborhood Achievement Awards

The deadline to submit applications and nominations for Neighborhood Achievement Awards has been extended by two weeks --- from Jan. 11 to Jan. 25.

Neighborhood Achievement Awards recognize the work of the city's neighborhood organizations in improving, protecting and enhancing their neighborhoods.

Awards will be presented at the Neighborhood Awards and Networking Luncheon that will be held Saturday, March 5, at the Knoxville Convention Center. The Diana Conn Neighbor of the Year Award will also be presented at the luncheon.

Neighborhood organizations are encouraged to submit an application for these competitive awards. First, if you have completed a neighborhood improvement project, engaged in community-building activities or made strides in strengthening your organization, you deserve the recognition, not only across the city but in your own neighborhood.

Secondly, these awards will encourage other neighborhoods to take on similar community-building projects. So don't be shy --- apply!

Download the application/nomination form. Or call David Massey at 215-3232 to have a hard copy mailed to you. More details can be found on the application form.

Whether your group is large or small, well established or brand new, your group is encouraged to apply. The awards will showcase accomplishments by neighborhood groups during calendar years 2014 and 2015.

4. Grant Funding Available for City Neighborhood Groups

The City of Knoxville is allocating up to $43,000 for the Neighborhood Small Grants Program (NSGP) in 2016.

Grant funds can be used for projects and programs developed by resident-led, resident-controlled neighborhood associations, tenant associations, homeowners associations, and neighborhood watch groups that serve neighborhoods inside city limits. Start-up neighborhood groups may also apply.

Groups wishing to apply must send a representative to either one of two mandatory pre-application workshops scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Thursday, January 14, and 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 20, at the Cansler Family YMCA, 616 Jessamine Street.

Applications are due March 14, and awards will be announced in May for projects starting in July.

Neighborhood groups can apply for grants ranging from $500 to $3,000. To enhance the impact of the city's funding, grants must be matched with donations of goods and services, volunteer labor and other financial support for the project.

The grant guidelines and the application form are available on the city's website. Or request that hard copies be mailed to you by calling the Office of Neighborhoods at 215-4382 (Debbie Sharp) or 215-3232 (David Massey). Also, call Debbie or David if you have questions or just wish to talk about project ideas.

Please note that many questions can be answered by reading the guidelines and looking over the application. Both the guidelines and application will be reviewed at the January workshops.

5. Advisory Council to Review Proposed Ordinance on Food Trucks

The Mayor's Neighborhood Advisory Council will meet at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 13, at Cansler YMCA, 616 Jessamine Street, to discuss a proposed ordinance to regulate mobile food vendors, more commonly known as food trucks.

Patricia Robledo, head of the city's Office of Business Support, and Crista Cuccaro, a member of the city law department, will attend the meeting to make a short presentation about the proposed regulations and then address questions and comments.

The City is seeking NAC's input, especially with regard to whether the ordinance as written raises concerns about impacts on residential neighborhoods, and whether NAC members have suggestions for improvements, if any are needed.

Here are some Frequently Asked Questions about food trucks:

http://www.knoxvilletn.gov/UserFiles/Servers/Server_109478/File/BusinessSupport/FAQs%20for%20Ordinance.pdf

Here is the proposed ordinance:

http://www.knoxvilletn.gov/UserFiles/Servers/Server_109478/File/BusinessSupport/Proposed%20Food%20Truck%20Ordinance.pdf

The ordinance has been revised in response to comments received from Community Forum, a group of neighborhood activists from both city and county neighborhood organizations.

NAC meetings are open to the public. All interested persons are invited to attend.

6. Consider Serving on the Neighborhood Advisory Council

If you would like an opportunity to offer regular input and advice to Mayor Madeline Rogero and her administration about neighborhood issues in Knoxville, now's your chance.

The Mayor's Neighborhood Advisory Council (NAC), established in 2009, meets at 4:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month to discuss Knoxville's residential neighborhoods and provide the city with candid viewpoints on how they can best be maintained, supported, improved, rejuvenated and sustained.

The NAC may offer advice to the Mayor or to any city department, either at its own initiative or at the request of a department wanting neighborhood input on a particular matter.

NAC consists of neighborhood leaders and activists who occupy a total of 15 seats --- two in each of the six City Council districts and three at large. Terms are for three years, and members may serve up to two full terms (six years). Members wishing to serve a second three-year term must reapply. The terms of five of the 15 seats expire this March.

These seats, current occupants and general territory are:

 Seat 1-B (Terry Caruthers) – South Knoxville and Fort Sanders

 Seat 3-A (Donna Downen) – Northwest Knoxville

 Seat 4-A (Lauren Rider) – North Knoxville east of Broadway, Cedar Lane area east of Parkdale Road, Old North Knoxville, and portions of Chilhowee Hills and Holston Hills

 Seat 5-B (Bill Hutton) – North Knoxville west of Broadway, Inskip, Lonsdale and portions of Norwood

 At large Seat A (Amy Midis) – city-wide

In addition, Seat 5-A is vacant, and someone will be appointed to serve the remaining two years of that term.

The Office of Neighborhoods is seeking applications from neighborhood leaders who wish to serve in these seats. To be appointed to a numbered seat, you must live in that City Council district. For example, the person appointed to Seat 5-A will be a resident in the fifth City Council district.

If you would be interested in serving on the NAC, you may fill out and submit an application, which is located online here. Or call David Massey in the Office of Neighborhoods at 215-3232 to have a hard copy mailed to you. Call David if you wish to learn more about the position. Applications are due by Monday, Feb. 8. Mayor Rogero makes the appointments.

7. Workshop to Offer Tips on Reducing KUB Bills

Another “Savings in the House” Workshop will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, January 14, at the Knoxville Area Transit Center, 301 E. Church Avenue.

This one-hour workshop is free and open to the public, and is for anyone interested in quick tips for reducing their utility bills. The workshop will also give information about the Knoxville Extreme Energy Makeover (KEEM) for those city residents interested in learning more about the program or who are applying and need the education credit.

Savings in the House workshops are jointly sponsored by the City of Knoxville, CAC, and Alliance to Save Energy. If you are interested in hosting a workshop or need more information, call 244-3080 or visit the website: www.KEEMTeam.com.

8. King Celebration to Include Art, Luncheon, Forum, March

The Martin Luther King Commemorative Commission has announced the following events for the 2016 King Week in Knoxville:

 An opening reception and MLK Gallery of Arts Tribute will occur from 6-8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 8, at the Emporium Center on Gay Street. The exhibit will feature works by African and African American artists that reflect the themes of Unity, Community, Love, Racial Reconciliation, Social Justice, and Civil Rights.

 An interfaith prayer service will be held at noon Wednesday, Jan. 13, at Lennon Seney Methodist Church, 2084 Dandridge Avenue.

 A Leadership Education Symposium, from 8:30-11:30 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 14, will be followed by the Annual Leadership Awards Luncheon at noon at the Knoxville Marriott Ballroom, 500 Hill Avenue. The keynote speaker is Dr. Raymond A. Winbush, the Director of the Institute for Urban Research at Morgan State University. Single luncheon tickets are $40 and can be obtained in advance by contacting 865.215.2048 or at Arrangements@MLKKnoxville.com.

 The Oak Ridge Environmental Peace Alliance will sponsor a community forum at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 15, at Beck Cultural Center, 1927 Dandridge Avenue.

 Activities on Saturday, Jan. 16, will include a youth symposium from 8:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at Austin East High School. Events for students of all ages will include an oratorical contest, activities, free food and music. Other Saturday events include teacher in-service training and the annual YWCA Race against Racism.

 The week will culminate on Monday, Jan. 18, with the MLK Memorial March starting at 10 a.m. from the YWCA Phyllis Wheatley Center, 124 S. Cruze St.; a Memorial Tribute Service at 11:45 a.m. at Greater Warner Tabernacle AME Zion Church; and a Night With the Arts featuring the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra at 6 p.m. at the Tennessee Theatre.

Much more detail on each event can be found on this events page of the Commission's website.
