Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 9 a.m. Tuesdays.

1. No Issue Next Week

This newsletter will not be published next week as staff prepares for the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon. The next issue will be published on Thursday, March 10. Articles and calendar items are due by 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 9.

2. Last Day to Register: Monday, February 29

Less than one week is now left to sign up for the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon, which will be held Saturday, March 5, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

Over 300 individuals have now registered for this event.

Advance registrations will be accepted through next Monday, Feb. 29, at this website. Be sure to fill out all pages of the form and click DONE at the end. For information or to register by phone, call the Office of Neighborhoods at 215-2113.

There is no charge for this event, including lunch, but you must register in advance so that a lunch ticket can be reserved in your name. Registration at the door will be possible, but you may or may not get a lunch ticket. Also, name tags are printed based on the advance registrations.

3. Pastor Daryl Arnold to Keynote Luncheon on March 5

Pastor Daryl Arnold of Overcoming Believers Church will keynote the Neighborhood Awards and Networking Luncheon on Saturday, March 5, at the Knoxville Convention Center.

Arnold is active in the community-wide Save Our Sons initiative that was launched by Mayor Madeline Rogero in 2014 and which seeks to put a halt to violence among African American men and boys. At the Luncheon, he will provide his perspective on this violence and offer ideas for individuals and neighborhoods to mount a meaningful response.

A native of Chattanooga, Arnold holds a B.S. degree in business management and marketing from Knoxville College. He served in various ministerial roles in Knoxville and Chattanooga before returning to Knoxville in 2003 to found Overcoming Believers Church, which now is located on Harriet Tubman Street with a membership of approximately 2,500 members.

Following Arnold's presentation, Mayor Rogero and members of the Neighborhood Advisory Council will present the Neighborhood Achievement Awards and the Diana Conn Good Neighbor of the Year Award.

The luncheon event --- beginning at 10 a.m. and ending at about 2 p.m. --- also features entertainment by the Old City Buskers; information booths; and an opportunity to meet Mayor Madeline Rogero, members of City Council, and several department heads and senior staff members.

Don't miss the "Bringing It All Back Home" Community Showcase, with eight groups presenting slide shows of innovative neighborhood and community projects.

Other features include a Pixels-in-the-Hood Photo Booth and drawings for over 50 door prizes. More detail can be found on the Luncheon web page and this Facebook event page.

4. Free KAT Ride, Free Parking for Neighborhood Luncheon

Anyone attending the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon on Saturday, March 5, can ride KAT for free to and from the Knoxville Convention Center.

KAT buses will run a regular Saturday schedule on Saturday, March 5. If you are headed for the Neighborhood Luncheon, just tell the driver, and you will ride for free.

Some bus routes go by the Convention Center. If not, you can ride to the Knoxville Station and then transfer to a free trolley to the Convention Center. See the KAT website --- <http://katbus.com/ADA/schedules.php> --- for routes and schedules.

Once you are at the Luncheon, stop by the KAT booth to get your free bus pass for the ride home. Be sure to stop by their booth before 12:15 p.m., when all booths will close.

For those traveling by car, free parking will be available at the Poplar Street parking lot across Cumberland Avenue from the Convention Center and at the Locust Street Garage.

5. O'Connor Center to Hold Pancake Fest

O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona Street, will hold its annual "All You Can Eat" Pancake Fest on Friday, March 4, from 7 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.

There will be an abundance of pancakes, sausage, orange juice, milk and coffee. The admission is $5.00, so bring a friend and enjoy other activities at the Center as well. For more information, or for orders to go, contact the O'Connor Center at 523-1153.

6. Knoxville Clean-up Event Planned for March 12

Five Points Up, a community group that promotes quality of life initiatives in East Knoxville, will hold its second annual community-wide clean up on Saturday, March 12, from 9:00 a.m. until noon.

The group is urging neighborhood organizations, churches, businesses and other nonprofits, as well as individuals, to participate.

Bring a friend and meet at 9 a.m. in the parking lot of the Harvest Center Plaza, 2410 Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue. Gloves, bags, tools, and safety equipment will be provided.

Partners for this event include CAC East Neighborhood Center, The Village of Knoxville, Smoke-Free Knoxville, Save Our Sons, AmeriCorps, 5PointsUp, Project Grad Knoxville, Knox County Health Department, and East Knoxville Business and Professional Association.

A planning meeting for this event will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 25, at the CAC East Neighborhood Center, 4200 Asheville Highway. For more, call Sarah Bounce at 215-5187 or CAC East Neighborhood Center at 526-5125.

7. Better Building Board Meets Thursday

One property is on the agenda for this week's Better Building Board (BBB) meeting at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, February 25, in the Small Assembly Room of the City County Building.

The property at 1404 Chicago Avenue is on the agenda for appeal of an order by the Public Officer. Neighbors affected by this property may wish to be present to testify on its impact on the neighborhood.

For a full copy of the February BBB agenda, with details and owner information on each property, visit http://knoxvilletn.gov/government/boards\_commissions and click on the Better Building Board.

8. Testify on Blighted Properties at Meeting Thursday

Eighteen properties are on the agenda for the City's next Public Officer Hearing, which will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday, February 25, rather than the usual time.

This time and date is for February only. All other 2016 POH meetings will stay on schedule (the Friday following the BBB meeting on the fourth Thursday).

The Public Officer --- Public Works Director David Brace --- will hear testimony on buildings that inspectors contend are in violation of the city's building codes. Testimony can also be made by the property owners, neighbors, neighborhood groups, and other stakeholders, such as lien holders.

The Public Officer then decides whether to issue an order requiring that the violations be addressed within a certain period of time. Failure by the owner to cure the problem may result in the boarding or demolition of a structure, or the cleanup of a dirty or overgrown lot, with costs billed to the owner. A property owner may appeal the Public Officer's decision to the Better Building Board and, ultimately, to Chancery Court.

The properties to be heard for repair/demolition orders are: 910 Camp Avenue (including accessory structure), 218 Chickamauga Avenue (including accessory structure), 5501 Foxwood Road (including accessory structure), 3030 Hackman Street (including trailer), 704 Hollywood Drive including retaining wall, 2229 Mississippi Avenue, 827 West Oak Hill Avenue, 128 Pickering Street (deck and retaining wall only), 138 Pickering Street, 922 Vermont Avenue, 612 Washburn Road (including accessory structure), 3240 Wilson Avenue, 925 West Woodland Avenue (including accessory structure).

The properties at 1000 May Avenue (including accessory structure), 209 West Moody Avenue, 435 East Morelia Avenue, 5133 Sevierville Pike (Accessory structure only), and 315 East Quincy Avenue will be considered for confirmation of a previously issued emergency repair/demolition order.

If any of these properties are in your neighborhood, you or a representative of your organization may wish to attend the meeting to submit testimony about the impact of the property on the neighborhood.

The full February 25 agenda, with details on each property, can be found here on the city website.
