Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 9 a.m. Tuesdays.

1. Tornadoes... Active Shooter... Other Emergencies: Are You Ready?

Here's today's Pop Quiz:

-  If a tornado is coming through Knoxville, what room in your house offers the most shelter?
-  Are you prepared for other natural and manmade disasters?
-  Could you rely on your neighbors for help?
-  In an "active shooter" or terrorist situation, what should your response be, as recommended by emergency services?

Not quite prepared to answer these questions? Then come to the Citizen Preparedness Workshop from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow --- Wednesday, April 20 --- at O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona Street. Refreshments will be served.

This workshop is sponsored by the Knoxville Police Department (KPD), the Knoxville-Knox County Emergency Management Agency (KEMA), and the Office of Neighborhoods.

KPD Sergeant Sammy Shaffer will provide detailed insight and advice on how to respond in active shooter situations and to acts of terrorism. KEMA Director Colin Ickes will discuss community preparedness for and response to natural and manmade disasters. Rebecca McIver of the Office of Neighborhoods will outline how your city neighborhood can participate in the Neighborhood Emergency Preparedness Program.

To reserve your seat, please fill out the form on this web page. Those with questions or without Internet access should call Rebecca McIver at 215-3456.

2. City Announces Public Meetings on Traffic Calming

The City of Knoxville has scheduled two public meetings on a proposed new Neighborhood Traffic Safety Program for residential neighborhoods.

The meetings --- with identical presentations --- will be held:

 Thursday, May 12, 5:30-7 p.m., at O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona Street

 Monday, May 16, 7-8:30 p.m., at West High School, 3300 Sutherland Avenue

Please mark these dates in your calendar and plan to attend one of the two meetings.

The program has been developed jointly by the Engineering Department, Police Department, and Office of Neighborhoods. For qualifying neighborhoods, the program will include enforcement, education and the use of traffic calming measures such as speed humps, traffic circles and traffic diversions.

Details will be available when program documents are released no later than May 3, and the public comment period will last through the end of May. The program is expected to launch in mid-summer.

3. This Sunday: Fourth & Gill's Annual Tour of Homes

Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization's 26th Anniversary Tour of Homes will be held from 1-6 p.m. Sunday, April 24.

Advance $10 tickets may be purchased online, at Three Rivers Market, at Bliss, and at Bliss Home. Day-of-sale tickets are $12 at the starting point --- Central United Methodist Church, 201 Third Avenue. There is no charge for children 12 and under.

The tour features several beautiful homes and six neighborhood porches where some very talented neighbors will have their creative work on display. Using a map obtained at the church, visitors can walk from one tour stop to the next or ride a trolley.

For more details and daily updates about the homes, artists, and event sponsors, check out the Facebook event and neighborhood pages.

4. Town Hall Seeks Vendors for Fountain City Day

"Fountain City: A Community of Volunteers" is the theme for this year's Honor Fountain City Day, which will be held from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Monday, May 30 --- Memorial Day.

There will be food, music, activities for children, a silent auction, speeches, presentation of community awards, and a ceremony honoring the nation's veterans and active-duty troops.

Local vendors and exhibitors will be present. If you would like to participate as a vendor, email Jamie Rowe at ombroligo@aol.com for booth rules and an application form.

5. Pond Gap Dedicates Neighborhood Signs

The Pond Gap Neighborhood Association recently sponsored a sign dedication/ t-shirt unveiling to honor its friendship with adjacent neighborhood Marble City.

Two signs --- one for Pond Gap and one for Marble City --- were posted in the 3000 block of Sutherland Avenue just to the east of a small creek that “is considered to be the traditional boundary” between Marble City and Pond Gap, according to David Williams.

“The signs were funded by Pond Gap resident Bill White and made by Jerry Moore of Sun Sign graphics,” Williams said. “The T-shirts were designed by Bob Riehl and Jenny Arthur of Borderland Tees and showcased the theme ‘Two Great Neighborhoods Side by Side.’”

Attending the ceremony were Williams, property owner Boyd Lonas, Bill and Roberta Potter, Debbie Black, Mary Rittle, Linda Lemon, Marie Anderson, Dan Raper, and Bob Riehl.

6. Whispering Woods Seeks Bowling Partners

The Whispering Woods Neighborhood Organization, located in the county near Rocky Hill, is inviting other neighborhood groups to join them for an evening of bowling at Strike and Spare, 5700 Western Avenue, at 8 p.m. Friday, April 22. For more information, call Alli Damas at (865) 523-9455.

7. North Hills Garden Club Holds Plant Sale Saturday

Rain or shine, the North Hills Garden Club will conduct its annual plant sale from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. this coming Saturday, April 23, at North Hills Park on Kennington Road.

Follow the green directional signs that will be placed at all major intersections leading into the neighborhood.

For this sale, garden club members have donated more than 50 different varieties of hardy plants, including perennials, shrubs, and trees from their own gardens. Thanks to a local nursery, there will be herbs, vegetables, hanging baskets, and blooming annuals. Gently used gardening tools and other items will also be for sale.

Come hungry and choose from freshly grilled sliders, hot dogs with all the trimmings, side dishes, cold sandwiches, baked goods, and a variety of beverages. There will be special activities for the children.

For details and updates, see the Facebook page (North Hills Garden Club Annual Plant Sale). All proceeds go into the beautification of the neighborhood boulevards and park.

8. MPC Upholds R-1 Zone in Norwood

The Metropolitan Planning Commission (MPC) last week denied a request by a car dealership to rezone property bordering a residential street in the Norwood neighborhood.

Fenton Nissan, 4515 Clinton Highway, asked to rezone the rear of its property from R-1 (Low Density Residential) to C-4 (Highway Commercial). Bordering Tillery Road, the residentially zoned portion is needed to park overflow cars, according to Knoxville Attorney Arthur Seymour, Jr., who represented the auto dealer at the monthly MPC meeting.

MPC staff concluded that the “general commercial use of this site... would be compatible with the surrounding land uses and zoning pattern.” It recommended the rezoning on the conditions that there be no access to Tillery Road, where most properties are residential in both zoning and use, and that the dealership install a 15-foot-wide landscaped buffer along Tillery.

Lynn Redmon, president of the Norwood Homeowners Association, said the Nissan parcel and two others were zoned R-1 years ago as part of a compromise to protect the neighborhood. Grant C-4 on the Nissan parcel, he said, and there would be no reason not to grant C-4 to neighboring parcels that were also part of the compromise.

He also noted that, while Fenton Nissan might intend to use the parcel only for storing cars, a subsequent owner of the property would have the right to any use allowed in C-4, which Redmon described as “a rough zone.”

MPC Commissioner Bart Cary noted that, just as the C-4 zone would run with the land, so would the landscaped buffer and no-access requirements. He thought the neighborhood would actually get a better screen as a result of the rezoning.

But Commissioner Laura Cole opined that C-4 would be too close to the residences on Tillery. Commissioner Art Clancy concurred, and his motion to deny the rezoning request was approved by the commission.

See the documentation on the request, including maps and a letter from Redmon. Other correspondence from neighbors can be found here and here.

9. MPC Ready to Discuss Bearden Mixed Use Zone

The Metropolitan Planning Commission (MPC) in early May will host a public meeting to present the proposed Mixed Use District zoning for the Bearden Village area.

The meeting will start at 6 p.m. Tuesday, May 3, at Bearden United Methodist Church, 4407 Sutherland Avenue. MPC staff will present the general concepts of the proposed zoning and will provide an opportunity for questions and input from the audience.

In 2001, the Bearden Village Opportunities Plan --- developed with input from the community --- focused on three goals: 1) enhance pedestrian activity and access, 2) enhance the sense of place and community, and 3) build upon Bearden's urban character and unique atmosphere.

To accomplish these goals, the plan makes several recommendations on how to transform the Bearden area into an "urban village", defined as "a complete and integrated community of housing, shops, workplaces, schools, parks and civic facilities within easy walking distance of each other."

In order to realize the Bearden Village concept, City Council last year requested that MPC staff consider options for more residential uses in the non-residential portions of the Bearden area. Staff determined that the existing zoning is not adequate to simply allow residential uses and that a new mixed use zone is needed to allow a range of uses and to give greater priority to pedestrians.

For more information about the proposed Mixed Use zoning, contact MPC Senior Planner Mike Reynolds at 865-215-2500 or mike.reynolds@knoxmpc.org. Additional information about the proposed zoning will be posted to the MPC website (www.knoxmpc.org) prior to the May 3 meeting.

10. BZA Decisions Can Impact Your Neighborhood

Seventeen properties are on the agenda for this month's meeting of the Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) at 4 p.m. Thursday, April 21, in the Small Assembly Room of the City County Building.

Established by city ordinance, BZA hears appeals of denials of building permits by the city's Building Inspections Department. The board, consisting of five citizens appointed by the Mayor, meets on the third Thursday of each month.

Addresses on the agenda include 2308 Forest Avenue, 220 Carrick Street, 4125 McKinley Street, 5101 Kesterwood Court, 10248 Kingston Pike, 953 E. Moody Avenue, 333 Depot Avenue, 1500 Lyons Bend Road, 6520 Baum Drive, 103 Midlake Drive, 517 E. Oklahoma Avenue, 1995 Henley Street, 313 W. Blount Avenue, 5429 Pleasant Ridge Road, 1830 Cumberland Avenue, 10461 Parkside Drive, and 6400 Sherwood Drive.

Keep up with how the BZA might impact your neighborhood. Watch for the black and white signs indicating that there is a pending decision on a particular piece of property. Most signs are for Metropolitan Planning Commission issues --- which are also important --- but signs with the word "variance" are BZA items.

The BZA agenda is posted on the city website. Browse to www.knoxvilletn.gov/boards and click on Board of Zoning Appeals. The agenda is posted no later than the Monday prior to the BZA meeting each month.

A neighborhood group that keeps track of BZA will call the Plans Review & Inspections Department at 215-3669 to request and study the paperwork on a particular appeal, decide whether to take a position on the appeal, and then attend the BZA meeting to voice the group's support or objections. A group can also request a postponement to allow time to meet with the applicant.

Decisions of the BZA can be appealed within 15 days of the BZA decision to Knoxville City Council. Appeals of a City Council decision are made to Chancery Court within 60 days of a City Council decision related to BZA.

11. City Targets Three Neighborhoods for Codes Sweeps

The City of Knoxville's Codes Enforcement Office will conduct a "codes sweep" in each of three neighborhoods this year.

During a codes sweep, all of the city's codes inspectors spend several hours in the same neighborhood, walking from door to door to identify any violations of the city's codes governing buildings, dirty and overgrown lots, and abandoned vehicles. Owners of or residents in a property with a codes violation are given a brochure identifying and explaining the violation.

The owner is given two weeks to cure the violation. If not cured after that time, a formal Notice of Violation is issued.

Neighborhoods that will get codes sweeps this year are Edgewood Park, April 21; Old North Knoxville, May 25; and Fourth & Gill, September 14.

These neighborhoods were selected in consultation with the Knox County Health Department. Along with the usual violation identification and education, inspectors will be collecting data to assist the Health Department with its "Project Diabetes Sidewalk Obstruction Campaign".

12. Bring Police Concerns to PARC Next Week

The Police Advisory and Review Committee (PARC) is a civilian oversight committee that audits the discipline process and the policies and procedures of the Knoxville Police Department (KPD).

The purpose is to strengthen the relationship between the citizens of the City of Knoxville and the KPD; to assure timely, fair and objective review of citizen complaints while protecting the individual rights of police officers; and to make recommendations concerning citizen complaints to the Chief of Police and to the Mayor.

By making sure citizen concerns are addressed by an independent body, PARC aims to improve the relationship between members of KPD and the citizens they serve.

PARC meets quarterly, and its next meeting is at 6 p.m. Thursday, April 21, in the Small Assembly Room of the City County Building, 400 Main Street. At this meeting, KPD Sgt. Tom Walker will explain how KPD officers can now administer the drug naloxone in an effort to save the life of someone who has overdosed on narcotics.

For more, contact Lisa Chambers at 215-3966.

13. KKB to Host “Trash Run” in South Knoxville

Keep Knoxville Beautiful (KKB) will host a Trash Run on Thursday, April 28, starting at Alliance Brewing Company, 1130 Sevier Avenue.

Runners and walkers will meet at 5:30 p.m., and the run will kick off at 6:00. There is a suggested donation of $5 to participate. This is a non-competitive fun run and litter pickup for runners/walkers of all ages. There is no designated route for the event. Instead, participants are encouraged to spend an hour running or walking and collecting litter in the area.

KKB will provide maps, gloves, bags, and litter-pickers. All runners will be eligible for prizes upon completion of the run. Participants will receive a $1 off beer, courtesy of Alliance Brewing, and there will be two food trucks on site. To register, visit Keep Knoxville Beautiful and click on the Upcoming Events link.

KKB recently announced that South Knoxville will be its Community of the Year until June 2017, and this is the first of many events KKB will host in the area.

14. League of Women Voters to Explore Voter Turn-out

The League of Women Voters (LWV) and Alliance House Community of Knoxville are sponsoring a community discussion aimed at increasing voter turn-out.

The event will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday, April 28, at Lincoln Memorial University (LMU), Duncan School of Law, 601 W. Summit Hill Drive.

Moderated by Knoxville News Sentinel columnist Georgiana Vines, the panel will include Cameron Brooks, Knox County Democratic Party; Buddy Burkhardt, Knox County Republican Party; Chris Davis, Knox County Election Commission; De'Ossie Dingus, Alliance House Community of Knoxville; Ann Strange, League of Women Voters; and Allan Wilford, Political Science Department, University of Tennessee.

All are invited to attend.

Visitors to LMU Law are welcome to park in the faculty/staff lot located on campus. The entrance is off of Broadway at the Summit Hill intersection. See directions.

15. Open Streets Set for May 15

Knoxville's second Open Streets event will take place on Sunday, May 15, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. If you missed out on Open Streets last October be sure and try to make it to this one. It is a free, family-friendly event perfect for people of all ages.

During this event, North Central Street from the Old City to Happy Holler will be closed to cars and opened to citizens so they can walk, roll, bike, dance, run, and skateboard without fear of motorized traffic. There will be plenty of other activities going on along the route, such as yoga, crossfit, and pickleball.

Open Streets is hosted by Bike Walk Knoxville with significant support from the Knoxville Regional Transportation Planning Organization (TPO) and the City of Knoxville. Major sponsors of the event include: Three Rivers Market, AMBC, Old North Knoxville, and Knoxville Track Club.

For more, visit <http://openstreetsknoxville.com/>. If you or your organization would like to offer an activity of some kind for this event, please contact Linda Gray at openstreetsknoxville@gmail.com.
