

Nominate an Officer Liaison

Do you know an officer who goes the extra mile to make his or her neighborhood a safer place? Perhaps you see them patrolling the neighborhood; they attend all the neighborhood meetings, follow up on issues and concerns, and answer questions in between meetings. How about someone who tries to make sure everyone in the neighborhood feels heard?

The Officer Liaison of the Year Award is presented annually to a City of Knoxville, Knoxville Police Officer (KPD) who gives back to the community by hearing neighbors' concerns, following up on issues, and continually doing their best to keep the neighborhood safe. The award is meant to honor someone who makes a positive contribution at the neighborhood level without seeking recognition for their service.

Nominations are now open and will be accepted through Friday, Sept. 11. Use the second page of this form to submit your nomination.

Nominees must be KPD Officers. Previous nominees may be nominated again. More than one nomination may be submitted for a single nominee. Nominated officers will be announced on Officer Appreciation Day, Saturday, Sept. 21.

A committee of neighborhood leaders will select the winner from the pool of nominees. This individual, along with other finalists, will be honored at National Night Out on Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Nominations must be received no later than Sept. 11, 2019. Submit your nomination forms by one of these means:
